An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week pay for twenty-five (25) hours of vacation pay in lieu of time off unused vacation pay from 2010. The Employer is obligated to contribute for forty (40) hours for that week.

An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week pay for fifteen (15) hours of vacation pay in lieu of time off. The Employer is obligated to contribute for thirty-five (35) hours for that week.

3. Upon termination of employment, the Employer is obligated to contribute for all hours paid in a lump sum (that is, hours which the employee was eligible to receive upon termination pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement, which may include, but is not necessarily limited to vacation, personal holidays and sick days) without the regard to a forty (40) hour cap.

Example:

An employee terminates employment (whether by quitting, retiring or involuntary termination). He/she receives a check representing payment for twenty (20) hours worked; eighty (80) hours of unused vacation and sixteen (16) hours of personal holiday. The Employer is obligated to contribute for one hundred sixteen (116) hours.

4. The Employer is obligated to contribute on hours paid for vacation in advance of the time taken off if the time to be taken off as vacation is designated at the time the vacation pay is requested.

Examples:

An employee requests vacation pay for time to be taken off the following week. The Employer is obligated to contribute for these hours.

An employee requests vacation pay for time to be taken off a month after the request is made. The Employer is obligated to contribute for these hours.

An employee has requested vacation pay with no indication of it or when time off would be taken. The Employer's obligation to contribute for these hours would be determined under paragraph 2 above (i.e., pay for vacation entitlement in lieu of time off.)
