ARTICLE 1 UNION AFFILIATION

SECTION 1. UNION MEMBERSHIP

A. The Employer agrees that all employees in the Collective Bargaining Unit must become members of the Union as required in Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this Article. The Collective Bargaining Unit shall include all production employees, all plant scalers and clerks, all hotel supply workers, and all clean-up personnel, dock workers, truck loading and receiving employees who have historically been members of Local 655 and all other employees who have historically been members of Local 655. The failure of any employee to maintain Union membership in good standing by the employee's failure to pay the periodic dues to the Union, as prescribed by the Union Constitution and By-Laws, and is suspended for non-payment of dues, shall upon written notice to the Employer by the Union to such effect, obligate the Employer to discharge such employee.

B. The Employer shall, for the term of this Agreement, deduct initiation fees, assessments, Union dues, credit union and political action from the weekly pay of employees who are members of the Union and who individually and voluntarily certify in writing all sums deducted in this manner to the Union before the tenth (10th) day of the month for which the initiation fees and dues were collected.

The Union and the Employer agree that they will not discriminate against any applicant for employment because of Union activity or affiliation, or because of race, religion, color, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability in accordance with existing law. Such help must meet the required standards of the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union by letter the name of the employee hired and the department in which he was placed, within seven (7) days of employment. When required by the Employer, all new employees must pass a physical examination at the Employer's expense.

SECTION 2. HIRING OF NEW EMPLOYEES

The Union and the Employer agree that they will not discriminate against any applicant for employment because of Union activity or affiliation, or because of race, religion, color, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability in accordance with existing law. Such help must meet the required standards of the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union by letter the name of the employee hired and the department in which he was placed, within seven (7) days of employment. When required by the Employer, all new employees must pass a physical examination at the Employer's expense.

SECTION 3. PROOF OF GENERAL COMPETENCY

Sixty (60) calendar days employment shall be accepted as proof of general competency. If the employee is laid off or sick prior to establishing his sixty (60) calendar days and is later recalled by the Employer, the employee must work the balance of this sixty (60) calendar days in order to establish his competency and seniority. After this period, a specific act or acts of incompetence must be given a dismissed employee upon demand by himself or Union representative. Violation of posted rules in the plant shall be cause for disciplinary action by the Employer. Prior to the expiration of the above sixty (60) days, if the employee is terminated, the employee may have recourse to the grievance but not to the arbitration procedure. If an employee is terminated within the last thirty (30) days of above period and has become a member of the Union pursuant to Section 4 herein, the Company will reimburse the affected employee the union initiation fee.

SECTION 4. WHEN NEW EMPLOYEES BECOME MEMBERS

When a new employee has worked for the Employer for thirty (30) calendar days, the employee must become a member of the Union. The failure or refusal of the employee to join the Union and pay the union initiation fee and dues, as prescribed by the Union Constitution and By-Laws, shall upon written notice to the Employer by the Union to such effect obligate the Employer to discharge such employee.

SECTION 5. MILITARY SERVICE

When an employee, who has established his thirty (30) calendar days of employment of accepted proof of general competency and establishes his seniority with the Employer, is drafted or enlists in Military Service, he shall upon his discharge from such service, and within ninety (90) days after such discharge, and if he so elects, be returned to the same of comparable position with the same Employer held before being called for Service, with full rights of seniority, provided there is no physical disqualification as

The parties will alternately strike three (3) names each from the panel, and the remaining person will be the arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator shall be accepted as final by both parties hereto. The expense of the arbitrator shall be borne by the loser, or by decision of the arbitrator in a split decision. With this total length of service in mind, the amount of vacation can be determined by reference to the regular vacation plan to arrive at his normal vacation.

The Company retains the right to have the Company physician consult with the employee's physician concerning her condition at any time.

SECTION 2. If the Union and the Employer agree, leaves of absence other than covered in Section 1, may be granted because of very unusual circumstances.

A. In the event of a layoff (reduction in the working force), all employees with less than six (6) years service in the plant must be laid off first.

B. In case of a department close-down, seniority will prevail on a plant wide basis. Employees that are transferred to any Departments under this section will have sixty (60) days to attempt qualification in the department they are transferred to.

SECTION 5. In the event additional help is required in departments where no one is laid off, such additional help shall be filled by employees who are laid off in other departments according to plant seniority. Wages paid to such employees shall be the wages of the position assigned.

SECTION 6. When an employee changes his address or telephone number the employee must notify the Employer and the Union immediately.

SECTION 7. Employees must notify the Employer the first day of their absence when they are unable to report for work and reason for such absence. Employees who fail to notify their Employer within two (2) days when they are absent from work, the Employer will then notify the employee at his last known address that unless the employee reports within five (5) days, giving reason for his failure to notify the Employer, the employee shall be removed from the payroll and records shall be marked "voluntarily quit". The Employer will send the Union a copy of letter sent the employee so the Union will be able to cooperate in this matter.

SECTION 8. Employees who are recalled to work and do not report within forty-eight (48) hours after recall, the Employer will then notify the employee at his last known address, that unless the employee reports within five (5) days or gives reason for his failure to report after being recalled by the Employer, the employee shall be removed from the payroll and records shall be marked "voluntarily quit". The Employer will send the Union a copy of letter sent the employee so the Union will be able to cooperate in this matter.

SECTION 9. Employees who have been laid off or recalled out of turn shall be returned to the job in accordance with their seniority involved and paid for time lost on the basis paid the employee who was recalled out of seniority. Employees or Shop Stewards shall make claims immediately when it is called to their attention that this section has been violated, but under no circumstances will the Employer be responsible for more than fifteen (15) calendar days pay.

SECTION 10. When a recalled employee does not respond within twenty-four (24) hours after the date of a recall or fails to make arrangements within the twenty-four (24) hour period with the Employer to return to work at a given time, the employee next in line shall be recalled and the employee who failed to respond shall have to wait until the following Monday morning before returning to work.

SECTION 11. Employees must return to the department of their original seniority when so recalled unless an agreement is reached for the employee to remain in the department by the Employer and the Union.

SECTION 12. If an employee who is eligible according to seniority for consideration of a higher rate job refuses such job, he cannot request such job until another bona fide opening occurs.

B. The Employer agrees to post all bona fide openings above labor rate. All bona fide openings will be posted plant wide for three (3) days. All employees working in the department where the bona fide opening exists will have the first preference, second preference to those working in the division and third preference to those working in the plant.

C. The Employer agrees that in filling temporary vacancies, such as vacations, leaves of absence, sickness, the next employee in line for a higher rated job shall fill said temporary vacancies.

SECTION 13. The Employer agrees when an employee is laid off in a department and said employee goes back to his primary department, he shall receive the rate according to his seniority. If he refuses to do the job he shall not receive the rate. When a layoff occurs in a department and if the employee laid off in the department refuse a job in another department where he has previously established seniority and the employee refuses the job in this department, he will be sent to the Union and the Union agrees to explain to the employee that unless he accepts work in a department where he previously established seniority when he is laid off, he must work in such department in order to keep his seniority in good standing in that department. If the employee without reason refuses to accept work in said department, he shall then lose his seniority in said department.

SECTION 14. Whenever the Employer has work on Saturdays or overtime and only a few of the employees are needed in the department, he shall offer such work to the employees in their department starting with the top of the seniority list, providing there are no inequities in hours as referred to in the second paragraph of this section, and if the employee refuses, he will not again be asked by the Employer to work extra in the department, until everyone on the seniority list has been given an opportunity for extra work and his turn comes again.

The hours in each department shall be equalized among the regular employees. The Employer shall be allowed sixty (60) days to equalize hours to within one (1) hour from the time the grievance is filed. Declined overtime counts as hours worked in equalization of overtime.

SECTION 15. The Employer shall notify the Union by telephone prior to a layoff due to lack of work. The Employer shall notify the Union President in writing within the week following the layoff of new employees who do not qualify within thirty (30) days and are laid off, employees laid off according to seniority due to lack of work, employees who are called according to seniority, and employees who establish thirty (30) days seniority in any department.

SECTION 16. Whenever the Employer needs help in another department, he shall offer such work to employees in other departments. If no one voluntarily agrees to be transferred to another department the employer shall have the right to transfer the number of employees needed in such department from the bottom of the seniority list from departments where employees can be spared. In such cases, the guaranteed time can be accumulated during the week in more than one department. In such transfers, if the employee is assigned to a lower rate, the employee's rate shall not be reduced. However, if any employee is transferred to another department due to a layoff, wages paid to such employee shall be the wages of the position assigned.

SECTION 17. Employees (unless on leave of absence or vacation) who miss more than three (3) days of work must call the Personnel Department at least the day before they will be permitted to return to work. Any employee, who fails to call in to the Personnel Department before returning to work, and reports for work, may be instructed by the Employer not to start working until the following scheduled work day in his department. This shall not apply to employees who are released by their doctor at night time, or on week-ends when they are unable to contact the Personnel Department.

SECTION 18. Any officers of the Local Union who are not re-elected to office or who leave office shall be able to return to work with full rights of seniority.

SECTION 19. If an employee is promoted to Foreman or Supervisor, he will not lose his seniority on the job. In the event he loses his position, the employee will be allowed to return to his bargaining unit in line with seniority. Time period will be a protection period of six (6) months.

Coverage under the ERIP may begin on the first day of any month, as elected by the employee, as long as the employee meets the eligibility requirements as of that date. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Board of Trustees has the right and authority to modify the rules and requirements of the ERIP Program at any time.

Section 11.6 The Trust Agreement and any and all amendments thereto are hereby made a part of this Agreement and are incorporated by reference as if fully set out herein, and the Company hereby agrees to be bound by said Trust Agreement. Employer payments due by reason of employment of an eligible employee are payable even though the eligible employee is no longer an employee at the time the payment is due. Payment shall be made at such location as the Trustees of the Pension Fund shall from time to time designate. Contributions on behalf of any eligible employee who prior to being employed under the Collective Bargaining Agreement was employed by the Employer in any capacity and at any location, or who has Future Service Pension Credit earned while working for another Company, shall be paid on account of work performed commencing with the first (1st) day of employment under this Agreement for any eligible employee first coming under this Agreement or hired after the date for which contributions were first payable to the Pension Fund by the Employer pursuant to this or a prior collective bargaining agreement, contributions shall be paid on account of work performed on and after the first (1st) day of the calendar month after such employee has been on the Employer's payroll for ninety (90) calendar days.

D. Any employee who is off from work due to illness, or injury, or pregnancy, the Employer will pay six (6) monthly payments beginning with the first (1st) of the month following date of departure from work. Any employee absent because of illness, or injury or pregnancy, must submit a written doctor's report of condition every thirty (30) calendar days to the Administrator and the Employer. Any employee failing to submit a written doctor's report, the Employer will consider him as having voluntarily quit ten (10) days after Employer sends written notice to the employee and the Union.

E. Any employee who remains absent from work due to illness, or injury, or pregnancy, longer than six (6) months, upon his return to work the payments will be paid by the Employer commencing with the first (1st) of the month following his return to work.

If said employee is not called back to work during the time he is covered for his laid off status, there will be no further Pension payments even through said employee has become ill during his layoff status.

G. If an employee is covered for the Pension benefits and is laid off, if said employee's pension benefits expire, and if said employee works one (1) day or more and is laid off before the first (1st) of the next month, the Employer will reinstate the coverage on the first (1st) of the next month for one (1) month's payment.

H. Any employee who takes his vacation at the time of layoff and is on vacation through the first (1st) of the month shall be considered on the payroll until his vacation expires and payment to the Pension Trust shall be made as if he had been working.

I. The Employer agrees to pay Pension payments on all new employees, except office clerical, as follows:

2. When a new employee has worked thirty (30) calendar days and is laid off before the first (1st) of the month, he will not be covered for payments to the Pension Fund. However, if said employee is recalled and works the following month for one (1) day or more, payment will be made to the Pension Fund on the first (1st) of the next month for one (1) month's payment.

SECTION 4. The obligation to pay contributions to the Pension Fund shall in no way affect any rights to discharge any employee granted the Employer under the Collective Bargaining Agreement. If any inconsistency exists between the terms of the Pension Article and any other provision of this Collective Bargaining Agreement, the terms of this Pension Article shall prevail.

SECTION 5. Employer contributions to the Pension Fund shall be used to provide retirement benefits for eligible employees in accordance with the applicable Pension Plan adopted from time to time by the Trustees of said Pension Fund (The "Trustee"). Eligible employees shall receive retirement benefits pursuant to said Pension Plan at a Benefit Level in accordance therewith, a copy of which Pension Plan the Employer has received, all subject to the Merger Agreement dated as of September 17, 1971 entered between the Board of Trustees of the Butchers, Sausage Makers and Packinghouse Workers Local 655/545 Pension Plan and the Trustees of the Merger Agreement Addendum dated as of November 1, 1973 and July 24, 1979, between the same parties.

SECTION 6. In addition to any other remedy which may otherwise be available to any of them, the Union, the Trustees of the Pension Fund, or both, shall have the right to sue in any court of competent jurisdiction to secure the payment of any monies due hereunder without the necessity of first utilizing any other remedy.

SECTION 7. The Employer adopts and agrees to be bound by all of the terms and provision of the UNITED FOOD & COMMERCIAL WORKERS union and industry Pension Fund Agreement and Declaration of Trust as amended from time to time (the "Trust Agreement") as fully as if the Employer was an original party thereto, a copy of which Trust Agreement the Employer has received. The Employer hereby designates as its representatives on the Board of Trustees of the Fund, the Employer Trustees named in said Trust Agreement, together with their successors selected in the manner provided therein. The Employer agrees to be bound by all actions taken by said Trustees pursuant to the powers granted by the Trust Agreement.

SECTION 8. The Employer shall contribute to the Pension Fund, as provided herein, only if the Pension Fund retains its qualification pursuant to the applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code as amended. The Employer shall participate in the Pension Funds only if such participation or the continuation thereof shall not impair the Pension Fund's qualification under applicable Internal Revenue Code provisions and Internal Revenue Service rulings and regulations.

SECTION 9. The commencement of contributions to the Pension Fund is contingent upon acceptance of the employees covered hereunder by the Trustees of the Pension Fund. The Employer shall make contributions as herein provided retroactive, if necessary, to the date specified in this Pension Article, upon receiving written notice of the Trustees' acceptance, provided, however, that the Trustees' acceptance and the written notice thereof shall not be required in the case of a renewal or renegotiation of a collective bargaining agreement covering an employer who has previously been accepted for participation in the Pension Fund, if the collective bargaining unit and the terms of this Pension Article, other than the contribution rates, have not been modified. After initial acceptance by the Trustees of the Pension Fund, this Pension Article shall remain in effect during the term of this Collective Bargaining Agreement and any extensions, renewals or modifications thereof and the terms hereof shall not be amended without the express written consent of the Trustees of the Pension Fund; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall limit the right of the Trustees to terminate participation of the employees covered hereunder in the Pension Fund on account of the Employer's failure to make contributions or as otherwise provided in the Trust Agreement or Pension Plan, and further provided that nothing herein contained shall limit the right of the Employer and the Local Union to terminate participation in the Pension Fund subject to the terms of the then existing Trust Agreement and Pension Plan.

SECTION 10. If for any reason, the Employer's participation in the Pension Fund fails to commence or having commenced, is terminated, then the Employer shall pay the contributions hereunder required to a qualified pension plan upon which the Employer and the Union shall agree, or, in the event agreement is not reached, the disposition of such payments shall be determined in accordance with the grievance procedures contained in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, if any. If no grievance procedure is contained in the Collective Bargaining Agreement, the qualified pension plan referred to herein shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

SECTION 11. The Trustees' acceptance for participation in the Fund of the employees covered hereunder shall be limited only to categories of employment covered hereunder at the time application for such acceptance occurs and the admission of any other category of employer to participation in the Fund shall require specific acceptance by the Trustees.

SECTION 12. Execution of the Pension Article by representatives of the Employer and the Local Union hereby indicates its incorporation into the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Employer and the Local Union covering the life of this Agreement; execution of this Pension Article by representatives of the Employer, Local Union and the Trustees indicates acceptance of the employees covered hereunder for participation in the Fund by the Trustees and also indicates agreement by the Employer,

HEALTH & WELFARE INTERPRETATION ADDENDUM

The parties agree that the following principles will apply in interpreting the Company's obligation to contribute to the Health and Welfare Fund under Article 11.

1. The Company shall contribute on hours paid out in a calendar year as unused vacation from the previous year, up to a maximum of forty (40) hours in the week in which the payout is made.

Examples:

An employee who is paid for forty (40) hours in a week in 2011 (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week pay for twenty-five (25) hours of unused vacation from 2010. The Company is obligated to contribute for forty (40) hours for that week.

An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week in 2011 (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week pay for twenty-five (25) hours of unused vacation pay from 2010. The Company is obligated to contribute for forty (40) hours for that week.

An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week in 2011 (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week pay for fifteen (15) hours of unused vacation time from 2010. The Company is obligated to contribute for thirty-five (35) hours for that week.

2. The Company shall contribute on hours paid for vacation entitlement in lieu of time off up to a maximum of forty (40) hours in the week in which the employee is paid the vacation hours.

Examples:

An employee who is paid for forty (40) hours in a week (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week twenty-five (25) hours of vacation pay in lieu of time off. The Company is obligated to contribute forty (40) hours in that week.

An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week twenty-five (25) hours of vacation pay in lieu of time off. The Company is obligated to contribute for forty (40) hours in that week.

An employee who is paid for twenty (20) hours in a week (including pay for hours worked and day-off entitlement hours) also receives in the same week fifteen (15) hours of vacation pay in lieu of time off. The Company is obligated to contribute for thirty-five (35) hours in that week.

3. Upon termination of employment, the Company is obligated to contribute for all hours paid in a lump sum (that is, hours which the employee was eligible to receive upon termination pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement, which may include, but is not necessarily limited to vacation, personal holidays and sick days) without regard to a forty (40) hour cap.

Example: An employee terminates employment (whether by quitting, retiring or involuntary termination). He/she receives a check representing payment for twenty (20) hours worked, eighty (80) hours of unused vacation and sixteen (16) hours of personal holiday. The Company is obligated to contribute for one hundred sixteen (116) hours.

4. The Company is obligated to contribute on hours paid for vacation in advance of the time taken off if the time to be taken off as vacation is designated at the time the vacation pay is requested:

Examples:

An employee requests vacation pay for time to be taken off the following week. The Company is obligated to contribute for these hours.

An employee requests vacation pay for time to be taken off a month after the request is made. The Company is obligated to contribute for these hours.

An employee has requested vacation pay with no indication of if or when time off would be taken. The Company's obligation to contribute for these hours would be determined under paragraph 2 above (i.e., pay for vacation entitlement in lieu of time off).
